

INSTRUCTIONTutoring

The Stafford County School Board permits the tutoring of students for credit only in the homebound instruction program and under the direction of the school administration. Only students who are physically unable to attend school and who are approved by the superintendent to receive homebound instruction may be tutored for credit.

Editor's Note

See also division policy and regulation 5-50.4.

Adopted by School Board: March 12, 1991
Amended by School Board: July 8, 1997
Amended by School Board: June 29, 1999